

WHEREAS Bruce J. Elfant has served as Precinct 5 Constable, Travis County, Texas, for almost two decades; and

WHEREAS in that position he has served admirably and diligently in managing one of the largest and most important departments in our county; and

WHEREAS he and his staff members has served legal papers to Travis County citizens in an effort to collect delinquent property taxes equitably and effectively; and

WHEREAS through his annual strategic planning sessions he has shown incredible persistence with his staff members, fellow county employees and our citizens to make sure all are dealt with in the most efficient and professional manner; and

WHEREAS he has had an enviable relationship with the Travis County Attorney's Office and the Travis County Tax Office to help ensure that our taxes are collected and allocated appropriately; and

WHEREAS for more than a decade he has diligently and conscientiously assisted the current Tax Assessor/Collector in training thousands of deputy voter registrars to make Travis County the most highly registered county in the State of Texas;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Stonewall Democrats of Austin wholeheartedly support the appointment of Bruce J. Elfant to the position of Travis County Tax Assessor/Collector effective January 1, 2012.
